

The brand SACHS

SACHS is the successful combination of seasoned Know-How, a willingness to innovate and the vision to achieve the highest possible quality. Clutches and shock absorbers of SACHS are among the leading basic products of the brand worldwide. They are always state of the art, what goes without saying. Experience from the developments for the king class of the Motorsport, the Formula 1, flow into the productions of manufacturers and the trade partners of almost all well-known passenger cars and commercial vehicles. Moreover, SACHS supports dealers and workshops with an extensive service programme. „Quality made by SACHS“ has formed the basis for our successful business in spare parts worldwide. That’s what SACHS stands for.

The brand LEMFÖRDER

The highest safety and quality in steering and suspension technology form the brand LEMFOERDER. Expertise in R & D ensures prompt implementation of mounting demands for safety and convenience. LEMFOERDER offers up to 70 different components for a passenger car or a commercial vehicle. It is also an optimal partner for the independent aftermarket with over 13.000 products in Hightech quality. The complementary service from information and training courses offers the necessary commercial and technical support for a sustainable and profitable presence on the market. That’s what LEMFOERDER stands for.

The brand BOGE

BOGE shock absorbers and rubber metal components provide for safety and comfort in passenger car and commercial vehicle. The brand qualifies as a competent partner in the aftermarket with customized shock absorbers for the most different requirements and an assortment of rubber metal components for over 4.400 different vehicle models. BOGE Service means a great significance. Independent workshops as a BOGE service partner take profit from leading know-how of the brand. Only those who combine tradition with vision can successfully work together in partnership to influence future. Product quality which is both convincing and state of the art, Flexibility which allows to set trends and to offer individual service, Sensitivity that unites make BOGE to profit a strong partner of the dealer and workshop. That’s what BOGE stands for.